REASONS TO VISIT

Why 5 Sub Routes?

The Stellenbosch Wine Routes has been divided into 5 sub routes to make travelling along the route even more user friendly. These sub routes originate from physical location and has no relation to the Wine of Origin system or any wards within the Stellenbosch region.

Reasons to visit Stellenbosch

- Stellenbosch is more than just a wine tourism destination; it is a way of life.
- The Stellenbosch Wine Routes is a route for all seasons, a place where memories are made.
- Stellenbosch boasts more wine awards per capita than any other region in South Africa. Add to that the heritage, history and natural beauty of the region, and you have a winner.
- Sometimes size matters! Stellenbosch is South Africa's biggest wine route, offering the visitor an unrivalled wine and culinary experience.
- With more than 150 wineries, each and every one is a reason to come and visit.
- The backbone of Stellenbosch is the majestic mountains surrounding it. They are the Helderberg, Stellenbosch Mountain, Jonkershoek Valley and Simonsberg, which is connected to Botmaskop and the rest of the Jonkershoek mountains by the saddle of Helshoogte.
- The spectacular scenery, friendly people, fabulous food and rich history are all reasons why Stellenbosch is considered South Africa's most popular wine route.
- Dorp Street has one of the longest rows of surviving old buildings in any major town in southern Africa, another reason to visit South Africa's favourite wine route.
- With 126 tees in and around Stellenbosch, you can play golf at seven acclaimed golf courses in the area.
- The games don't stop here – many wine farms offer activities such as bird watching, boule, carriage rides, fishing, game drives, horse riding, hiking trails and wine drives.
- Stellenbosch is not only South Africa's wine and gourmet capital, the town also boasts the world's oldest rugby club, Maties! Hempius du Toit, owner and winemaker, Annandale Wines.
- Stellenbosch farms and restaurants offer activities for children, making it possible to linger longer.
- Sundays on the Stellenbosch Wine Routes is a family affair, there is something for everyone to do seven days a week.
- "Wine Town of the Year" Munsänkarna, world's largest wine club, Sweden.
- Stellenbosch Wine Routes helps to facilitate the educational and social upliftment of farm and cellar workers, travel agents and hotel school students, towards the greater integration of the wine industry."
- Ken Forrester, chairperson of the SWR

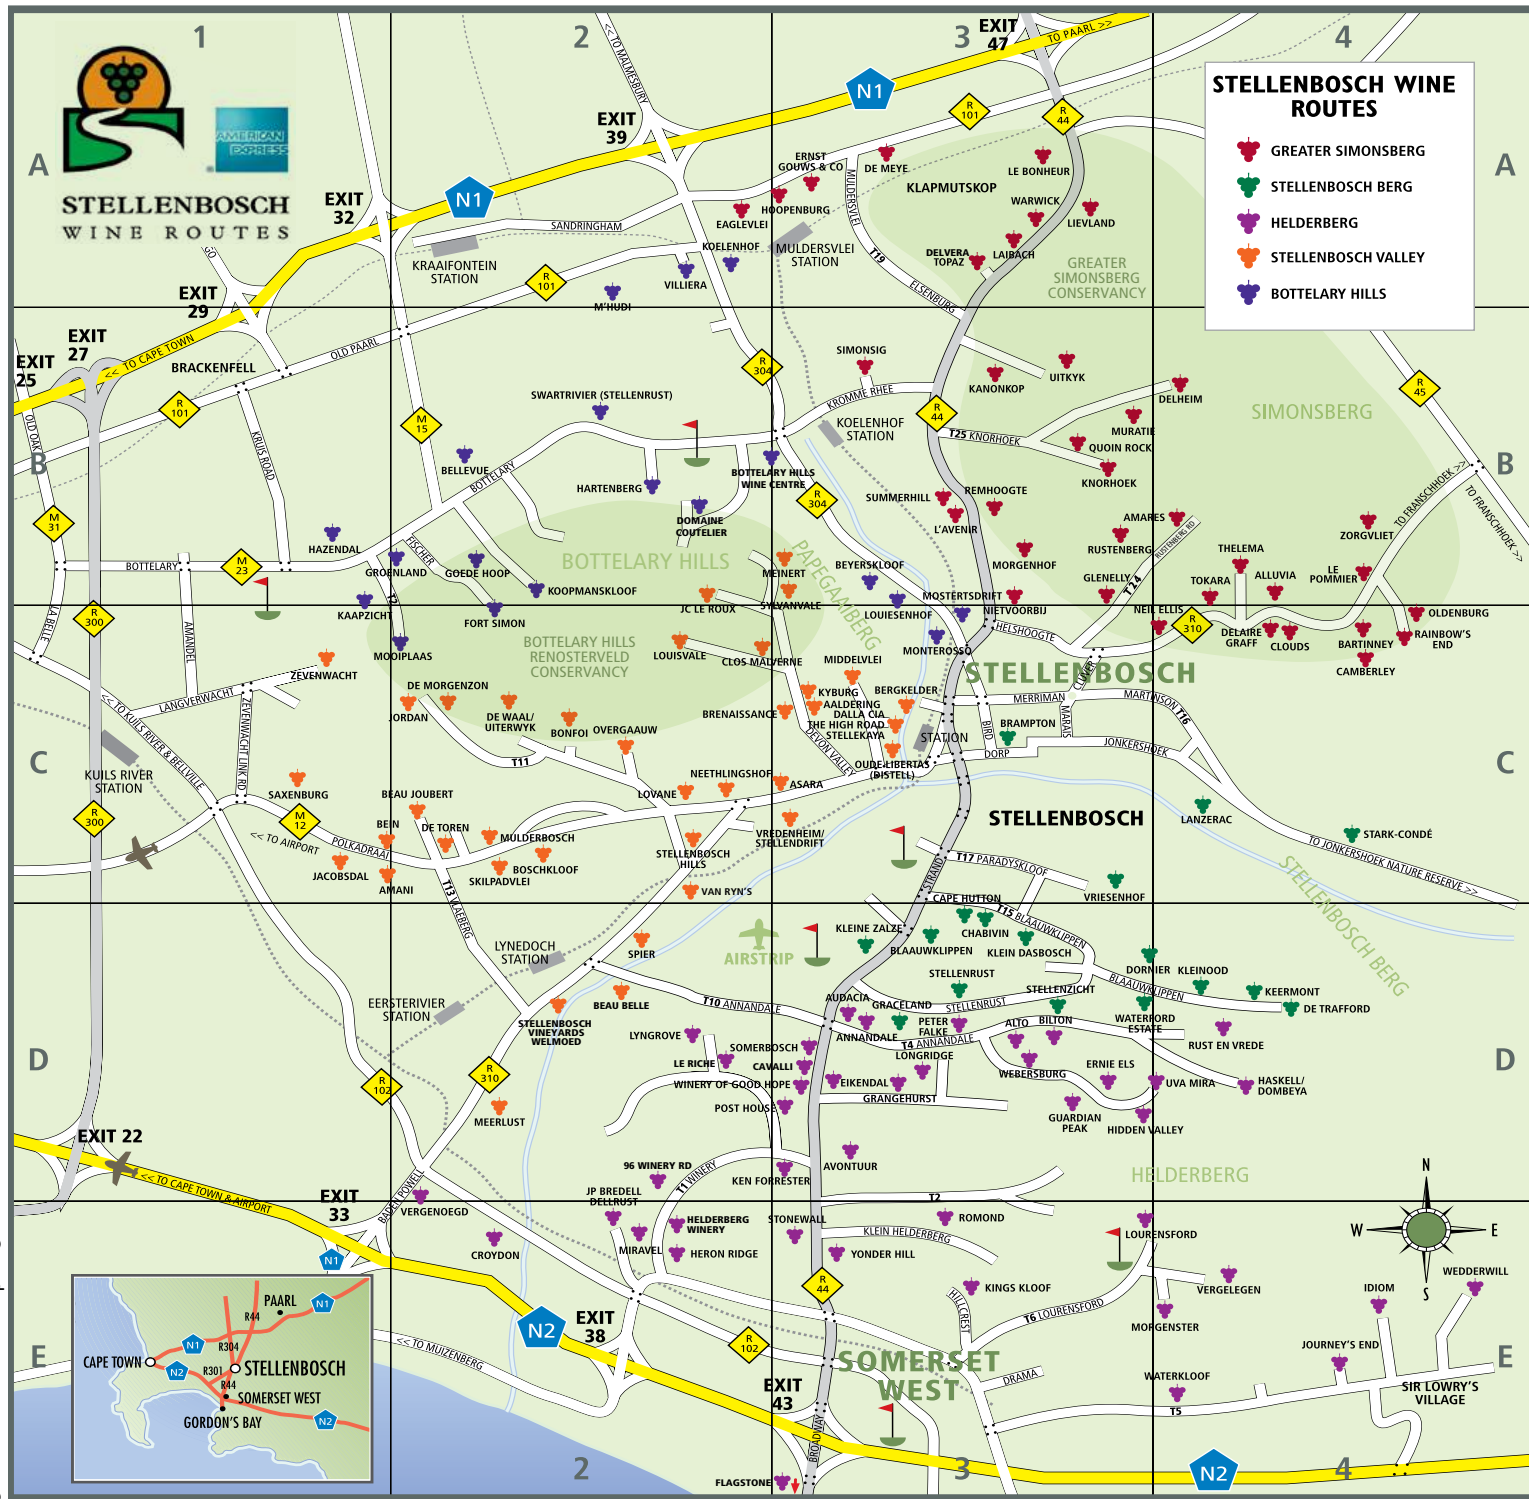

PLAN YOUR DAY

We gladly share the following guidelines and tips with you to ensure that your visit will be enjoyable and memorable. These are guidelines only. Each cellar may operate on a different system.

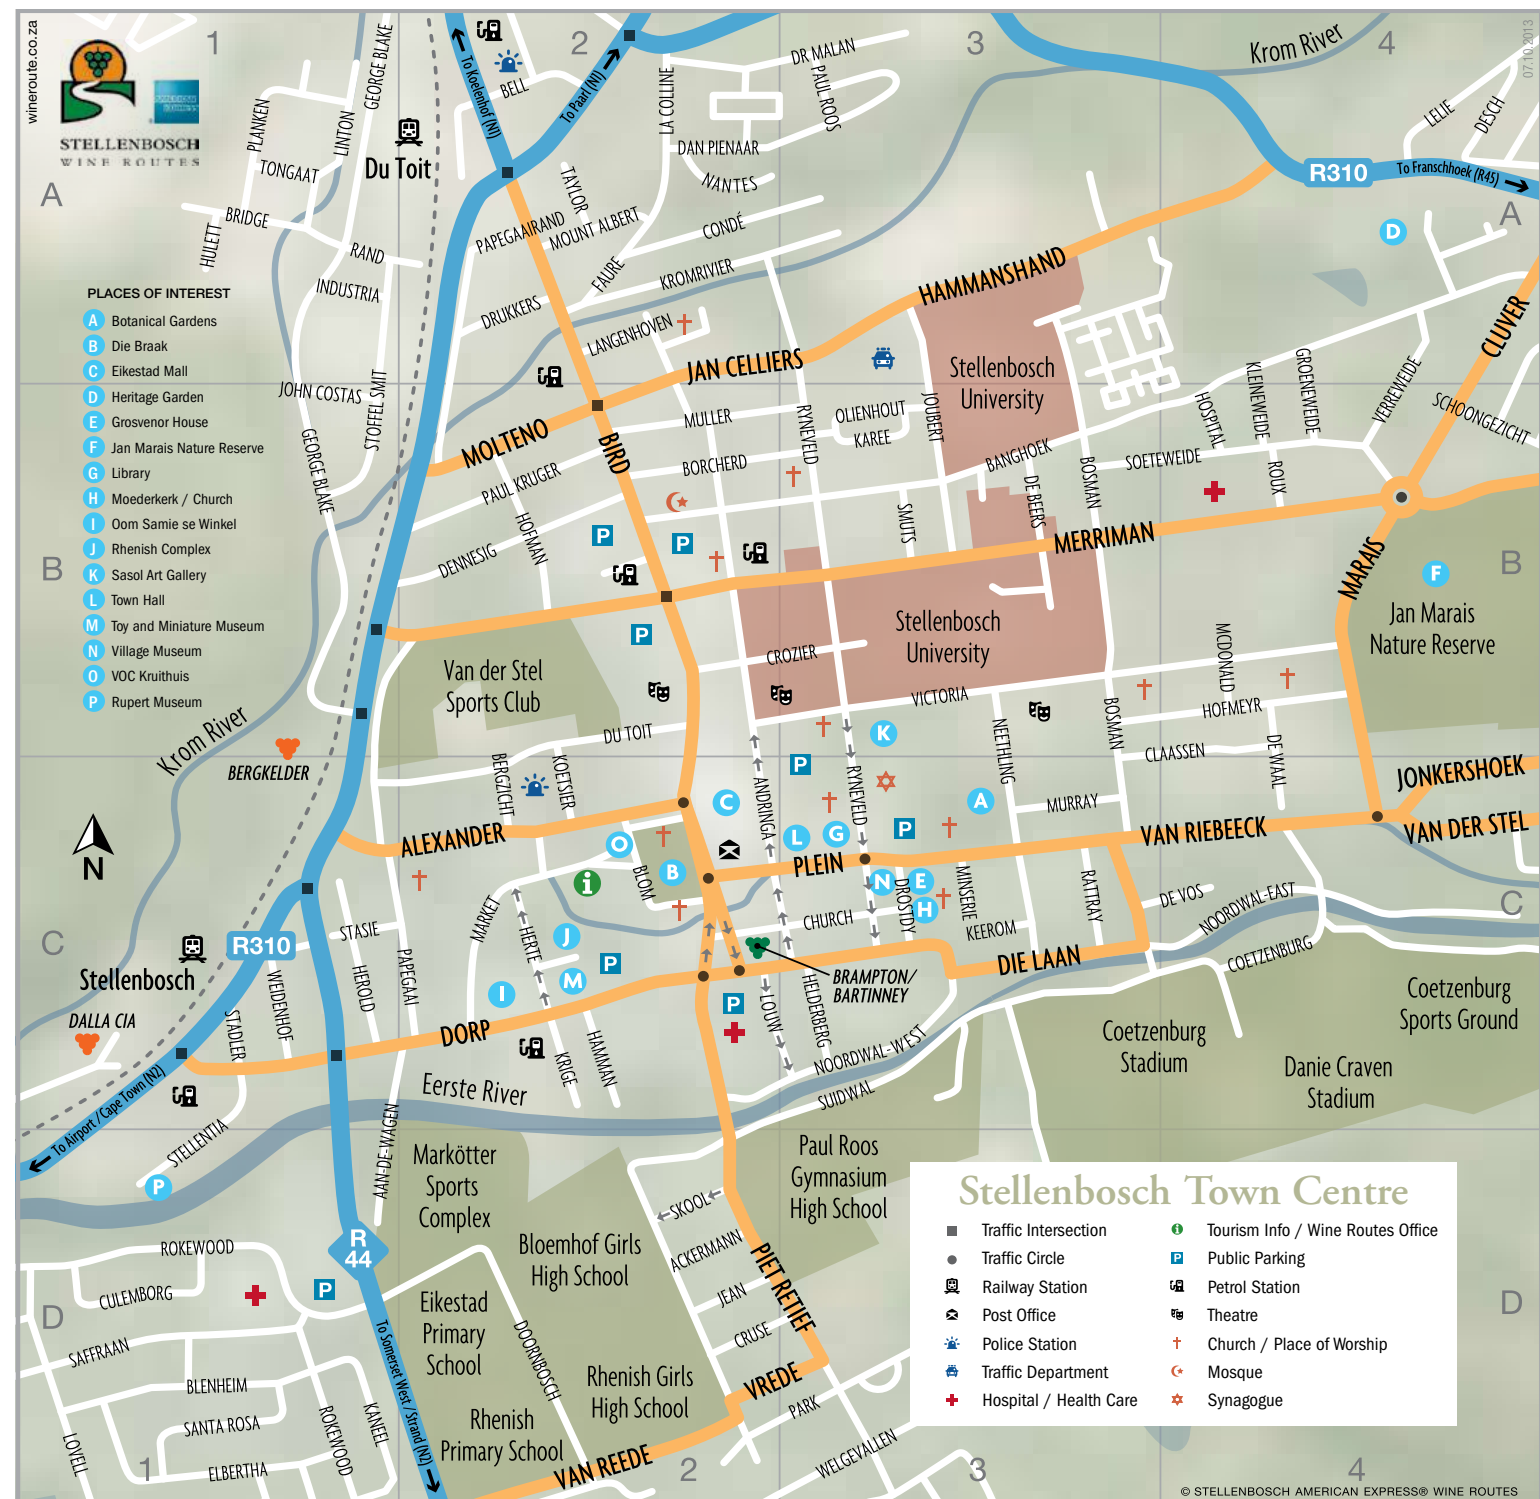

Where to start

1. Use the lists in this document and define the wines you wish to taste and the activities you wish to experience.
2. Decide which cellar you wish to visit first.
3. You will need at least one hour for each farm you visit.
4. Try to join a cellar tour (normally in the mornings). You will find it most informative, entertaining and interesting. Cellar tours during harvest time give you the opportunity to see how grapes are processed in the cellar. February is peak harvest time.
